THE "MOUNTAINEER"

CARRIERS' ADDRESS,

FOR THE

NEW YEAR 1860.

KIND FRIENDS:—As we leave you this week's "MOUNTAINEER,"
We hope you're enjoying the best Mountain cheer;
With Friendship's warm rays to enliven the soul,
And Love's happy light to illumine the whole.
As the music with motion inspires the feet,
May our paper be an intellectual treat,
And besides giving all the late items of news,
Give a strength to your judgement, and a cast to your views.
"Do Right," is our motto, and freedom our pride—
"Let the consequence follow," when Truth's on our side.
We will not with humbug and politics bore you,
But lay a plain statement of matters before you;
Of things as they are, and what we would like better,
And our minds shall be free from a shackle or fetter.
We bring you the news to the door of your home,
The last item is—eighteen-sixty has come;—
Of a prosperous life may it give you new lease,
And find your abodes full of health, joy and peace.
And as you your social enjoyments renew,
In kindness remember the CARRIERS too.
With this, we will wish you the season's best cheer,
And respectfully bid you A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

G. S. L. City, Jan. 1, 1860.
